

Subject: Seeking pro bono legal counsel

Dear _____:

I hope this email finds you well. [If applicable, explain how you received the attorney’s contact information—e.g., “I spoke with _____, who recommended you as an attorney with a background in healthcare and passion for reproductive justice.”]

I am [position] at [organization], a [brief description of organization—e.g., “an organization that administers a Title X family planning project, which supports a network of _____ health centers in [state]” or “a Title X-funded health center that provides critical reproductive health and family planning services to folks in our area”]. We are searching for an attorney to provide pro bono legal support to our organization in an evolving regulatory and legal landscape.

Do you have time for a call to discuss?

Thank you,
